Présentation

Description

Responsable du cours : Anne COUSSON

In third year, the British civilization class will focus on 20th century history. Through a serious game, the students will be actively involved in understanding the major events of the period. They will role-play BBC teams trying to cover current events while managing the changing landscape of broadcasting throughout the century.

Objectifs

- Understanding the legal, political and technical constraints of public broadcasting
- Learning about pivotal events of 20th century Britain
- Researching historical events
- Staging clear and appealing presentations of events, using multimedia resources
